Registered No. M.—1175.

176

147

The Mysore Gazette.

Vol. 56.] PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY. [No. 30.

BANGALORE, THURSDAY, JULY 28, 1921.

PART II.

OFFICIAL PAPERS.

176

PROCEEDINGS OF THE GOVERNMENT OF HIS HIGHNESS THE MAHARAJA OF MYSORE.

Rules for the Guidance of Depositors in Savings Banks.

READ—

Correspondence ending with letter dated 22nd April 1921, from Rao Bahadur K. S. Ranga Charry, Retired Post-master, Bangalore, regarding the modification of Mysore Government Savings Bank Rules.

ORDER No. Fl. 34—G. F. 19-19-7, DATED 1ST JULY 1921.

The additions and alterations proposed by Rao Bahadur K. S. Ranga Charry and detailed in the appended statement will be made in the "Rules for the guidance of Depositors in Savings Banks."

2. Government accept his suggestion that the rules for the guidance of Treasury Officers should be incorporated in Volume II of the Mysore Account Code, which deals with "Treasury Procedure." Section II of the present Savings Bank Rules dealing with the procedure in Treasuries in respect of Savings Bank work will be included in the Code as a separate chapter together with annexures. Rao Bahadur Ranga Charry has offerred a number of suggestions for improvement and amplification of these rules, and he has also sent a complete draft incorporating the suggestions. The Comptroller is requested to consider them and adopt such of them as are suitable.

3. The thanks of Government are due to Rao Bahadur Ranga Charry for the interest and thoroughness with which he has examined the rules and for the many valuable suggestions offered by him for making them clearer and more complete.